

Industrial Consultancy services

OneSS Infra offer - One window solution for an aspiring entrepreneur, if you dream to spread your wings in Indore – The commercial capital of M.P. we are here to enlighten you with our one window services. From the moment you dream of a venture here in Indore till your dream turns into reality.

1. Land Allotment - Taking into consideration the inspiration and awareness among all the aspiring entrepreneurs regarding various benefits and facilities offered by government. We support you with strategize the land purchase and allotment for your industry.
2. Consent to Establish – We support you to obtain mandatory consent to establish (NOC) from State pollution Control Board. We ensure smooth, hassle free documentation and formalities with the authorities.
3. Consent to Operate – Avail guidance from our team with all the operating and approval support from the authorities. This service includes consent certification as per pollution control board. Categorization as per environmental compliance to avail consent to operate.
4. Drawing Approval under factory Act – With expert team of structure engineers that will design architectural frame work of your dream industry. Our experts follow strict factory standards keeping safety and operational factor in mind to design structure so that the factory standards are met in one go and you can get approval on your drawings.
5. Factory License – This is the most important document required to operate factory under the provision of factory act. We guide you with all the documents and submission of plan of any class with all the detail description about your establishment.
6. Building Map Approval – Map approval involves architecture planning, we follow strict measure of safety as per government standards, approval and permission for gross area and floor area ratio. We follow you during approval and post approval building plan and submission of inspection report.
7. Construction Permission – OneSS Infra help you to avail construction permissions for your industry. Government permission for construction area, fire and safety permissions.
8. Property Tax – Our allied associates help you understand your property tax assessment. The assessed value for your property. We carefully verify liability of your property with local administration; we convey and support you with transparent information collected from the local authorities.
9. BOCW Registration – We helps you to avail BOCW registration which is an important element for the next stage of your project. This act helps you to cover your workers falling under building and other construction act. Application for registration is to be made in a prescribed manner with allied documents to process the enrollment.
10. DIC subsidy as per state Government – We strongly support these schemes offered by state and central government. These kinds of schemes provide financial supports and offer soft loans to meet part of the margin money and our role is to help you avail this subsidy.
11. DIC for Small or large scale industry – We offer technical support for preparation of project reports submitted to the authorities. Organizing information on machinery and equipment. We help you allot raw material.

12. SIA Registration – We help you set up online account with the help of some information from provided by you. We manage these accounts for you as per your instructions. This is a simple procedure to verify credentials submitted by you. Government of India has defined manufacturing and service engaged industries.
13. Bank Finances – We support you with the challenges you face with bankers and the financial institutes for loan processing and your business idea acceptance. We help you to swim out safe between the finance sharks and help you take the right decision in terms of finances and your future fund management.
14. Fire NOC – As per industrial safety standards it is necessary to have a NOC issued for fire safety and industrial hazard. We design fire, elevation and section plan as per safety standards and assist you to have a fire NOC and coordinate with Fire and safety officer for approvals and permissions.